

2008-2009 HIGH ABILITY PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT CALENDAR (as of August 26, 2008)

2008

September

September 29-30

Strategies for Differentiating Instruction: Best Practices

Julia Roberts and Tracy Inman – Wilson ESC, Charlestown

www.wesc.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

September 30-October 1

“Recognizing Gifted Potential”, Bertie Kingore – Plymouth

www.siec.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

(the third day of this training series is March 4, 2009)

October

October 1-2

Strategies for Differentiating Instruction: Best Practices

Julia Roberts and Tracy Inman – Indy (Sheraton North)

www.ecesc.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

October 6

New High Ability Coordinators Meeting (0-3 years) – Indianapolis

www.doe.in.gov/exceptional/gt for additional information/registration

October 15

Fall High Ability Coordinator Meeting – Jasper

www.siec.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

October 16-17

Quality Curriculum & Instruction for Students with High Abilities

Sherry Hamstra – Plymouth

www.niesc.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

October 20

Fall High Ability Coordinator Meeting – Indianapolis

www.ciesc.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

October 21

“Recognizing Gifted Potential”, Bertie Kingore – Clarksville

(third day of the training series that began April 8-9, 2008)

October 29-November 2

NAGC Annual Convention – Tampa, Florida

November

November 3

Fall High Ability Coordinator Meeting – Columbia City

www.r8esc.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

November 5

“Recognizing Gifted Potential”, Bertie Kingore – Fishers

(third day of the training series that began June 30-July 1, 2008)

November 10

Identification of High Ability Learners: Tests, Tools, and Tips

Burney and Speirs Neumeister – Plymouth (Swan Lake Resort)

www.r8esc.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

November 11

Social and Emotional Needs – Developing Affective Curriculum

Burney and Speirs Neumeister – Plymouth (Swan Lake Resort)

www.r8esc.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

November 11-12

Strategies for Differentiating Instruction: Best Practices

Julia Roberts and Tracy Inman – Merrillville (Avalon Manor)

www.ecesc.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

November 13

Curriculum Writing for High Ability Learners – Overview Day

James Curry – Charlestown (Wilson ESC)

www.nwiesc.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

November 14 Curriculum Writing for High Ability Learners-Overview Day
James Curry – Indianapolis
www.nwiesc.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

November 17 Fall High Ability Coordinator Meeting – Charlestown
www.wesc.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

November 19 Fall High Ability Coordinator Meeting – Highland
www.nwiesc.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

December

December 1 Identification of High Ability Learners: Tests, Tools, and Tips
Burney and Speirs Neumeister – Charlestown (Wilson ESC)
www.wesc.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

December 2 Social and Emotional Needs – Developing Affective Curriculum
Burney and Speirs Neumeister - Charlestown (Wilson ESC)
www.wesc.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

December 4-5 Quality Curriculum & Instruction for Students with High Abilities
Sherry Hamstra – Indianapolis

2009

February

February 2 Administrators Workshop, Julia Roberts & Tracy Inman – Indianapolis
(held in conjunction with IAG/IDOE Conference – participants invited to attend second day of conference for FREE)

February 2-3 IAG/IDOE Conference – Indianapolis Convention Center www.iag-online.org for registration and additional information

February 23 Social and Emotional Needs – Developing Affective Curriculum Burney and Speirs Neumeister – Indianapolis (Sheraton North)
www.ecesc.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

March

March 4 “Recognizing Gifted Potential”, Bertie Kingore – Plymouth
(third day of the training series that began Sept. 30-Oct. 1, 2008)

April

May

May 8 Curriculum Writing for High Ability Learners-Overview Day
James Curry – Highland (NWIESC)
www.nwiesc.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

June

June 15-17 Curriculum Writing for High Ability Learners; James Curry – French Lick Resort
www.nwiesc.k12.in.us for additional information and registration

June 29-July 1, 2009 Curriculum Writing for High Ability Learners; James Curry – The Landmark Centre, Fort Wayne
www.nwiesc.k12.in.us for additional information and registration